

GCS Summer English Institute 2009

Would you like to improve your writing? Is your grammar in need of some revision? Are you concerned about scoring high on upcoming standardized tests? Do you need to make up a failed English class?

If you answered "yes" to any of these questions, then the GCS Summer English Institute may be for you. You will have an opportunity to improve your writing, grammar, and even make up one semester of English credit. Additional home assignments and an attendance requirement will be expected to receive a grade for GCS credit.
